A SAFE PLACE

Helping those who are homeless while sharing God's Word.

A Christian Ministry meeting basic needs of people living homeless in Prescott Valley. Through our Drop-In Center at 6594 East 2nd Street, we engage with people on a personal level, affirm their dignity, share God's love, and encourage movement toward long-term stability.

Our Mission is to serve Christ by ministering to people experiencing homelessness, offering spiritual hope and encouragement while meeting immediate and vital needs and acknowledging their life stories with love and compassion.

We Offer fellowship, meals, showers, clothing, supplies, resource information, on-site Chaplains and Community Navigators who can address barriers to stability and facilitate access to temporary shelter, housing resources, veterans' services, behavioral and health services. We provide computer access, job search help, and connect people with a wide array of services.

A 501(c)(3) Organization, financial contributions are tax deductible and eligible for the Arizona State tax credit (QCO #22459).
